Re: Request to Amend Summary Judgment Deadlines
Doe v. Rutgers, et al., Civil Action No. 21-20763 (D. N.J.)

Dear Judge Hammer,

On behalf of Plaintiff Veronica Doe, and in agreement with Defendants Rutgers University and Scott Strother, we respectfully request that this Court amend the summary judgment deadlines (ECF No. 100) by one week each for good cause shown. Specifically, Plaintiff's lead counsel suffered severe illness last week requiring urgent medical care and is now recovered to resume work.

- The parties are to serve (but not file) their motions for summary judgment by April 12, 2024.
- The parties are to serve (but not file) their opposition papers by May 10, 2024.
- The parties are to serve (but not file) their reply papers by May 31, 2024.
- Plaintiff shall electronically file all papers in support of and in opposition to her motion for summary judgment by June 7, 2024.
- Defendants shall electronically file all papers in support of and in opposition to their motion for summary judgment by June 7, 2024.

We thank the Court for its consideration of our joint request, and we are available to respond to any questions or concerns at the Court's convenience.

Respectfully Submitted,

s/Laura L. Dunn
